

Wesley Mission Queensland Logan Youth Foyer

In September, the Thread Together van attended several new sites, including the Wesley Mission's Logan Youth Foyer.

Volunteer Janet (pictured) assisted clients at the Foyer which, like Anglicare's INSYNC youth service, provides a range of supports for young people aged 16-25 years who are at risk of homelessness.

One young person told us enthusiastically that the clothing was 'sick' as he made his selections - apparently this is a good thing!

Footy Finals!

Footy Finals Fever hit the Thread Together Clothing Hub in September as all sorts of sports related clothing was unpacked and distributed. Volunteer Jane (pictured in our "stock room" AKA Rev Sue's garage) loved the AFL inspired baby onesies. So much detail, even down to the laced-up look for the booties. Carlton and Swans we believe? We know these will be adored and gratefully received by families.

Red Rose Certificate of Appreciation

Red Rose Foundation kindly presents this certificate of appreciation to the Thread Together team who recently attended their service and assisted their clients. Red Rose Foundation focuses on addressing high-risk high-harm domestic violence. Their work includes providing counselling, groups and advocacy for domestic violence survivors, and providing education and training, community awareness activities and systems advocacy.

Interested in volunteering?

Not all volunteers get in the van and head out on site visits to assist people directly. So much valuable and important work is done at the Thread Together home base at Indooroopilly where orders are received, boxes are unpacked, clothing sorted and stored, and the van restocked. Volunteers Marion, Wendy and Sharon Ann enjoyed a busy morning recently getting clothing stock ready for the week. We appreciate all of the work that our wonderful volunteers do!

Become a partner

Our usual reminder that if you work with people who are doing it tough (in metro, regional or remote areas of Queensland), you can also apply to become a Thread Together partner. This enables you to place orders for new clothing directly on the Thread Together online portal, and have items delivered for free to your door. Contact Kate for help (threadtogether@anglicaresq.org.au) or apply quickly and easily at the onboarding form on the Thread Together website, at www.threadtogether.org/apply-charity-partner-online

Clothing hub bookings

To refer your clients for a Thread Together clothing hub appointment at Indooroopilly, please go to our booking page [anglicaresq.org.au/thread-together-brisbane-clothing-hub].
