St John's Home for Men

Effective from 1 January 2026

Our St John's community

St John's offers a safe and comfortable living environment in the leafy suburb of Toowong, with generous communal spaces that allow residents to relax, socialise, and participate in daily activities. You can enjoy a BBQ in the outdoor area, unwind in the games or cinema room, browse the mini library, or visit the canteen. The home is designed to foster a strong sense of community, helping you feel comfortable, connected, and at home.

At St John's Home for Men, we provide specialised care tailored to your needs with 24-hour nurse and allied health support, as well as specialised medical and dementia care. Our trauma-informed, person-centred approach ensures every resident is respected, valued, and supported each day.

Nutritious, home-style meals are freshly prepared on-site, with menus planned in consultation with residents and nutritionists to cater to dietary requirements and cultural preferences, offering a variety of fresh, seasonal produce. Rooms at St John's are designed for comfort and security, and you are encouraged to personalise your space. Available in different configurations, they come with air conditioning, in-room storage, and safety features like a nurse call system.

Life at St John's is centred on connection, purpose, and community, with a dedicated leisure and lifestyle team organising a variety of group activities and social events to keep you engaged and active.
