

Huge congratulations to Thread Together founder Andie Halas for being recognised for her outstanding service to the community, receiving an OAM. Since 2012, Andie's dedication, leadership and tireless work with Thread Together has made a significant difference in the lives of so many people experiencing vulnerability and hardship. This recognition is a testament to her commitment to making a positive impact on people and the planet.

Gayndah & Bundaberg Road Trip

Early in the morning on Wednesday 7th of June, this intrepid crew (all except Maisy!) set off with the Thread Together van full of brand new warm clothes on a road trip to Gayndah and Bundaberg. The team connected with Anglican communities in those towns to get the clothing to people who needed them most.

The Gayndah and Bundaberg Thread Together road trip picked up friends along the way, and many hands helped with the distribution of new clothes and shoes. The Thread Together van was easy to spot in the country car parks!

Success!

In June, the Thread Together Queensland Mobile Wardrobe and Clothing Hub will have assisted over 7000 people over two and a half years!

Become a partner

Our usual reminder that if you work with people who are doing it tough (in metro, regional or remote areas of Queensland), you can also apply to become a Thread Together partner. This enables you to place orders for new clothing directly on the Thread Together online portal, and have items delivered for free to your door. Contact Kate for help (klittmannkelly@anglicaresq.org.au) or apply quickly and easily at the onboarding form on the Thread Together website, at www.threadtogether.org/apply-charity-partner-online

Clothing hub bookings

Hub bookings are now available. Please go to our booking page [anglicaresq.org.au/thread-together-brisbane-clothing-hub] to refer your clients for a Thread Together clothing hub appointment.

STAYING COVID SAFE

We have Covid-safe procedures in place. Please contact us if you have questions or concerns.
