

Road to Resilience

It's great to have our Queensland van back from the panel beaters after a small bump - we're just waiting for the new vinyl wrap. We were very grateful to the national Thread Together office for arranging the loan of a van while ours was off the road. This allowed us to continue our site visits uninterrupted, and especially to make our road trip to Gayndah and Bundaberg.

Lockyer Valley High School

Thread Together recently made a special trip to Lockyer Valley High School, where 25 enthusiastic students chose items they needed and loved from a van full of brand new clothing. Each piece of clothing carried with it not just warmth and comfort but also a boost in confidence, knowing they looked great and that their community cares for them.

October Hub Update

In October, our hub location will be used for referendum pre-polling while maintaining our core operations on the same site. For a short period, we'll be operating from Rev'd Sue's garage at the back of the property. This temporary change allows us to continue our vital work, ensuring that clothing support remains uninterrupted. Located conveniently on the same property, follow the signs a little further down the driveway, and you'll find us at the back of the property.

SAVE THE DATE!

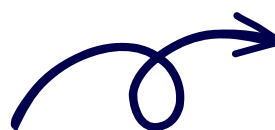

Please join us for a morning tea on the 27th September. It's the perfect opportunity to connect with fellow volunteers and catch up on the latest updates. Feel free to bring a friend to find out more about Thread Together - we're always happy to welcome new faces for a no obligation trial run!
