

Formal First

Thread Together in Queensland recently registered a “formal first”, loading up the mobile wardrobe with formal and semi formal wear to assist the young people preparing for end-of-year graduations at Mango Hill YMCA Vocational Senior School. Beautiful dresses and smart jackets, trousers and shirts were available for approximately 40 young people. A very successful day and lots of smiles and excitement.

Thread Together at St Francis Festival

October has been a busy month for the team. The Thread Together van was invited to attend the St Francis Festival at St Francis Theological College, Milton to spread the word about the mobile wardrobe and the work of Thread Together.

Canine Thread Together volunteer, Bo (with a little help from Kate and Ron), had a great time chatting to festival goers and college staff about the project. Promotions in the community assist with getting the word out about Thread Together, and increase our volunteer base and networks.

The Great Outdoors experience

While it was a fun change of pace to run the Thread Together clothing hub from the rectory garage (enjoying the fresh air while also dodging the odd shower) we were very pleased to return to our usual lovely home after a few weeks in the Great Outdoors to accommodate the referendum and a further booking in the undercroft space.

We had quite a few Referendum voters pop down for a friendly chat to find out more about our parish and Threads operation.

Now that the hub is back 'at home', however, we're ready to welcome customers again in a little more comfort.

We were very grateful to welcome Deb (Lynn's sister visiting from the UK) to the team for the day.

Many thanks to everyone who assisted and made the moves so seamless.

Become a partner

Our usual reminder that if you work with people who are doing it tough (in metro, regional or remote areas of Queensland), you can also apply to become a Thread Together partner. This enables you to place orders for new clothing directly on the Thread Together online portal, and have items delivered for free to your door. Contact Kate for help (threadtogether@anglicaresq.org.au) or apply quickly and easily at the onboarding form on the Thread Together website, at www.threadtogether.org/apply-charity-partner-online
