RESEARCH SEED GRANTS PROGRAM

Anglicare Southern Queensland invests in research-driven innovation that leads to improved service delivery and better outcomes for our clients, their families, our staff, and the communities we serve.

APPLICATIONS FOR 2025–2026 ROUND NOW OPEN

Applications open	22 August 2024
Applications close	21 October 2024
Application Review Process	22 October–22 November 2024
Short listed applications presentation	w/c 11 November 2024
Announcement of successful applications	w/c 25 November 2024

The Anglicare Research Seed Grants Program provides initial funding for innovative research projects. It seeks to nurture cutting-edge ideas and facilitate early-stage research projects consistent with the organisational commitments, focus areas and strategies outlined in Anglicare's 2023-25 Strategic Plan.

FUNDING

In the 2025–2026 round, there is a total of $80,000 available for seed funding research projects. Funding of up to $20,000 (excl. GST), which may be taken over 18 months (max.), will be provided to each successful applicant (individual or team).

ELIGIBILITY

Anglicare will consider applications that:

- meet eligibility requirements set out in the Research Seed Grants Application Guidelines
- support Anglicare's strategic priorities, commitments and focus areas
- are deemed by the review panel to be innovative projects with high relevance to Anglicare.

All seed grant applications must involve at least one Anglicare staff member as partner investigator. Any interested Anglicare staff member or team can collaborate with a university researcher or research team and apply for funding. Please contact research@anglicaresq.org.au for discussion of your proposal before submission.

HOW TO APPLY

Step 1. Complete the application: Applicants must read the Research Seed Grants Application Guidelines prior to completing the Application Form. Complete the application form and attach any required documents. We strongly suggest you also read our Seed Grant Tip Sheet.

Step 2. Submit the application: Email the completed application and attachments to the Anglicare Research, Evaluation and Advocacy team at research@anglicaresq.org.au.
